HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 910
By Winningham

A RESOLUTION to honor and commend Jimmy Philpot on his 25 years of exemplary service as an Emergency Medical Technician with the Clay County Ambulance Service.

WHEREAS, the state of Tennessee is proud to specially recognize and commend medical personnel, who work hard, perform their duties adroitly, and truly care for their patients' concerns; and

WHEREAS, the Clay County Ambulance Service was established on January 1, 1973; and

WHEREAS, on January 26, 1973, Jimmy Philpot began his employment with the Clay County Ambulance Service and is currently an Emergency Medical Technician IV. This exemplary citizen has been a devoted, dedicated, and diligent employee of the Clay County Ambulance Service for more than 25 productive years; and

WHEREAS, Jimmy Philpot has rendered an invaluable service to the citizens of Clay County, consistently going beyond what is required. On one occasion, while transporting an elderly gentleman home, Jimmy was asked to stop at a grocery store and purchase a gallon of milk. Without hesitation, he stopped the ambulance and the patient proceeded to give a long list of grocery items; Jimmy obligingly honored the patient's request; and

WHEREAS, the highly respected and regarded Jimmy Philpot has been widely praised for his competence; and
